

FREE courses for young people from East Leeds this Summer!

This summer Chapel FM Arts Centre will be working with young people from East Leeds to use the power of radio to share stories in the wake of coronavirus social distancing.

Courses will be held online, however there will be the opportunity to join in with some outdoor sessions later in August for those who are able and happy to attend.

From the comfort of your own home, get involved this summer ...

Music

Starting week beginning July 27th / Age 11-18

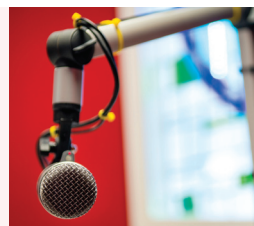

A music project for local young musicians. Join Sian our music worker to explore musical styles, interview musicians, write songs, create and record for our LIVE Summer Broadcast.

Broadcasting

Starting week beginning July 27th / Age 11-18

Learn what goes into making a live radio show. Join Jamie our broadcast worker to plan and create content, run interviews, and be part of our LIVE Summer Broadcast.

Writing for Radio

Starting week beginning July 27th / Age 14-25

Join Peter our writer in residence to help craft your words into a poem, a blog, a story, a piece of sound art or a song, and be part of our LIVE Summer Broadcast.

To find out more or to book a place, please contact Charlotte; charlotte@headstogether.org / 0113 22 55 944

Please provide your name, age, where you live and a contact number (for a parent or carer if you are under 18) and we will get back to you with details about how the project will work.

No experience required, just your enthusiasm!

Register your interest by: Monday 20th July

If you have any learning needs, then please let us know so that we can make our courses more accessible for you.
