The Cluster Team: Who We Are

Red Kite Learning Trust's Temple Newsam Community Partnership has a Cluster Team who works with our local schools and partners to provide a comprehensive package of targeted and universal support for local children, young people and families experiencing social, emotional and/ or behavioural difficulties. The team currently consists of the following:

Cluster Leadership and Community Support Team

Lisa Oxley
Cluster and Targeted
Services Leader

Gemma Sargeant
Cluster Manager

Rachel Stockdill
Cluster Community
Worker

This team provides leadership, coordination and support for all targeted and universal Cluster services including:

- 1:1 support for children and young people
- 1:1 support for parents and carers
- Advice, guidance and consultation for schools and partners
- Supervision and training
- Fundraising
- Communications and marketing
- Community volunteer programme
- Community and adult learning opportunities
- Community projects
- School holiday activity programmes
- Wider community links, partnerships and development opportunities
- Strategic links to Leeds City Council, NHS and the third sector

Cluster Attendance Support

Laura Smith: Our Attendance Manager works 1:1 with children, young people and families to ensure positive attendance at school. The Attendance Manager can also provide advice, guidance and support for schools and partners. Where positive improvements are not made by families, the Attendance Manager can prepare cases for legal intervention when appropriate.

Cluster Parent Support Team

Bev Scott
Cluster Parent Support
Worker

Kath Riach
Cluster Parent Support
Worker

This team provides 1:1 early intervention support for parents and carers, delivers evidence-based parent support groups and courses, and provides advice, guidance and consultation for parents, carers, schools, and partners. The team also provides family support, alongside specialist services, to children and families who are amongst the most vulnerable in Leeds, including those at risk of becoming Looked After, those on child protection plans and those that have been adopted or in special guardianship arrangements.

Cluster Counselling and Emotional Wellbeing Team

Hannah Allen
Emotional
Wellbeing
Worker

Lizzie Haigh
Emotional
Wellbeing
Worker

Gemma Myers
Emotional
Wellbeing
Worker

Gemma Trathan
School
Therapist

This team provides 1:1 early intervention counselling and emotional wellbeing support for children and young people. They support children and young people experiencing issues with low mood, anxiety, trauma, self-harm and suicidal ideation. Advice, guidance and consultation is also offered to schools and partners. This team also support children who are at risk of, or have attempted suicide, or that have or are at risk of significant mental health breakdown. They support schools and families to manage this risk in universal settings alongside specialist services.
